Ralph Pulltzer Lodges Information Against Gaynor With Magistrate Kernochan.

DEFENDS FATHER'S NAME

Action on Charge That Joseph Pulitzer Made $50,000,000 By Blackmail and Indecency.

Mr. Raiph Pulltrer lodged an information before Magistrate Kernochan, in Boses Market Court, charging Mayor William J. Gaynor with criminal libel in defaming the memory of his father. the late Joseph Pubtzer.

Magistrate Kernochan agreed to hear the application and took the case under advisement, after three other City Magdeclined to entertain Mr. Pulitzer's com-

The complaint was accompanied by three supporting affidavits.

On Feb. 4 Mayor Gaynor spoke be fere the South Brooklyn Board of Trade. His speech was reported by two executive stenographers in the city's employ and, under direction of the Mayor, given by them to the in this instance to have notified the various newspapers for publication.

In the speech so reported Mayor Gaypor, referring to Joseph Pulitzer, said he "had amassed a fortune of $60,000,000 by blackmail and indecency."

The complaint had been previously presented to Magistrate Kernochan on nday, who then objected to the form of the information, though this form was based on that used in a case recently resubmission of the matter Mr. Howard Taylor and Mr. James W. Osborne, counsel for the compiainant, conformed to the requirements stated by the Mag-when Magistrate Kornechan called up the matter at the close of the semion yesterday afternoon the papers were submitted. On reading them the Court agnounced that he would not take any action for two or three days, as he was in dount whether if there was a crime of fibel and whether if there was a crime it fell within the jurisdiction of the county of New York. MR. TAYLOR'S ARGUMENT FOR ACTION BY THE GOURT.

Mr. Taylor said he was prepared to answer on both points, having the authorities at hand, but that his understanding of the last was that the procoodings at this stage were an parte and not public. He said the complainant

In his argument before Magistrate and abetting publication in the Sun Kerrochan Mr. Taylor began by alluding to the fact that the Magistrate was electing to hear the application for a summons from the bench when it was accomplished that the defendant inquite plain that a number of reporters were present, adding that while he had no desire for any private hearing in behalf of the application, on the other hand he regretted that the argument had to be made in the absence of this other party to the proceedings, since the argument would undoubtedly be reother party to the proceedings, since the argument would undoubtedly be reported to the press. The situation, however, was not of his making, Mr.
Taylor mild.

It was notable that neither Magistrate Kernochan nor Mr. Taylor made any mention by name of the Mayor. Mr.
Taylor took occasion at the end of his
